Top IPO performers in Q3 2017

Titomic, Doriemus and Okapi Resources IPOs outperform

Titomic Ltd.: Up 122.5% since listing

Titomic's technology and product offering resides within the industry of 3D printing, and is more broadly described as additive manufacturing.

Common everyday products that broadly use additive manufacturing components include; mobile phones, cameras, engine parts, vehicle interiors, aircraft, power tools and medical implants.

The additive manufacturing industry is expected to grow from $6.1 billion in 2016 to approximately $9.5 billion in 2018 and $26.2 billion by 2022 according to Wohlers Associates, Inc.

Titomic's differentiating factor is its ability to manufacture industrial scale, large size parts currently not available with any other system or technology.

Doriemus Plc: Up 92.3% since listing

Doriemus is a UK based oil and gas exploration and production company. It seeks to provide value and growth opportunities through acquisition and accumulation of quality onshore and offshore oil and gas assets within emerging and established oil fields in the UK and in other jurisdictions.

Doriemus' key strengths are: an experienced board, attractive assets and licensing regime, low production costs with access to existing infrastructure.

The overall growth strategy is to build a portfolio of quality oil and gas assets, in addition to its current core assets and non-core assets.

Okapi Resources: Up 65.0% since listing

Okapi Resources carries on the business of mineral exploration with a specific focus on gold exploration.

Okapi Resources has two distinct exploration projects. The Mambasa Project is in the Mambasa District, in the Ituri Province of the Democratic Republic of Congo and is the subject of a joint venture agreement. The Crackerjack project is 100% company owned and is near Halls Creek in the north-west of Western Australia.

Crackerjack is interpreted to sit within the same litho-structural setting that hosts numerous historical gold shows and mines in the field.

Okapi Resources are encouraged by the Mambasa project with anecdotal evidence of artisanal activity producing up to 1kg of gold per week and its litho-structural setting.
